Date: 30 November, 2024

To Whom It May Concern,

This is to certify that Pritam Debnath was employed with Go-Plus as a Frontend Developer from 13th of March 2023 to 30th November 2024.

During Pritam's tenure with us, he has been a valuable team member contributing significantly to the success of our projects. His key responsibilities included:

- Developing and implementing features for our e-learning platform, ensuring seamless user experiences.
- Identifying and fixing bugs to ensure smooth functionality and stability of the platform.
- Enhancing the codebase to improve maintainability, readability, and performance, thereby adding long-term value to our product.

Pritam's dedication to his work and commitment to quality were evident in all the projects he undertook. His technical skills and collaborative approach made him a dependable part of the development team.

As part of a restructuring that the company has gone through, Pritam's position was made redundant, and his employment concluded on 30th November 2024. We acknowledge his contributions during his time with us and wish him all the best in his future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Hania Baramki
