To whom it may concern

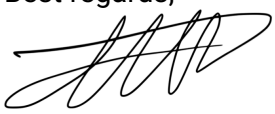

This is to certify that Pritam Debnath has successfully worked with THEKEY as a Full-Stack Developer on a contractual basis from December 1st, 2024 to March 17th, 2026.

During this period, Pritam demonstrated strong expertise in full-stack development, working across both frontend and backend technologies. He contributed to the design, development, and deployment of scalable web applications, and showed solid proficiency in modern frameworks, APIs, and cloud-based environments. His ability to translate requirements into efficient technical solutions, along with his attention to detail and problem-solving skills, made him a valuable contributor to the team.

Pritam consistently displayed professionalism, reliability, and a collaborative attitude while working with cross-functional teams.

We sincerely appreciate his contributions and wish him continued success in his future endeavors.

Best regards,

Abdulrahman Albearoti
